Judge D. M. Russell Signs Decrees Granting Temporary Injunctions Against Slot Machines

Observations...

By the Editor

Well, our good friend Chance Cole must be down in the gills this week. Pearl River County is playing second fiddle to Hancock County. Our little girl from Kiln, Miss Patsy Favre, really put it over the girls from the other counties in the Southeastern District Forestry Queen contest. Yes sir, Chance, some of the boys may be asleep down here; but our girls are really all there, especially with looks. And Chance, little Patsy is going to Jackson, and we think she is going to Kop the Kup there. You know she now represents you folks, too, and when she is declared State Queen of the Forest, we shall be glad to have you boys in Piquette acclaim her as your queen, too. By the way, haven't forgotten the postal route matter either...

Apparently the only course for the Mayor and Commissioners to take about the L & N Railroad blocking the crossing from the station on through the Beach, is to prefer charges against the company and against the conductor of the train. This may break it up. Correspondence and the promises from the trainmaster that it will be taken care of, is mere pie crust. Last Monday morning, a freight blocked every crossing from the beach through to the station for nearly a half hour. This happened some time between 8:30 and 9:00 o'clock. Would probably be a good idea to instruct the chief of police to do the necessary.

The boys in the rackets should realize that theirs is a lost cause. This past week two slot machines were seized by the City Police and will be destroyed, and the other blow came when Judge Russell signed decrees in eight cases, recently filed, granting temporary injunctions. This means eight more of the locations are closed. There are thirty other cases pending in the Chancery Court, which will come up for hearing at the October term, which convenes on the Fourth Monday. The process is a little slow, due to the delaying legal tactics of the respondents; nevertheless, this is a fight to the finish, and we think the boys should be cognizant of the fact that the folks leading this fight to rid Hancock County of racketeers are not quitters and that attempts of intimidations will not deter their action. And too, we want to commend Judge Russell for his action in granting these injunctions. His is not a court for the enforcement of the law, but since those charged with the enforcement of the law have failed so dimly, his court has become the only recourse. It is unfortunate, of course, and it places a further burden on him. With an already overcrowded docket, he does not shirk his duty; if others would do their duty he could be relieved of this burden.

City officials are enforcing an ordinance that has been in effect for some years dealing with delivery licenses. Officers are stopping trucks, and any driver who does not have a delivery license must pay $5.00 to obtain one. Some deliverers already have licenses, and have been paying for them for some time, but there are some who have not paid this fee. It is our suggestion that they stop by the Commissioner of Finance's office and secure a license.

Theatre Plans Hilarious Climax

The cast of the "Great Big Doorstep" is busy at the Little Theatre with rehearsals for the play which goes on November 9, 10, and 11.

This is the last presentation of the season and should furnish an hilarious climax to the year's activities. Jamie Langurand who plays Madam Crochet gives promise of performing one of the outstanding character portrayals of the year in her realistic interpretation of a capin mother.

She is ably supported by a well selected cast, and her efforts at keeping her family from "bustin' up" will provide an entertaining evening to theatre goers.

Miss Geri Martin, center, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Martin of Bay St. Louis, reigned as Queen of Homecoming at St. Stanislaus college Sunday, October 8. Maids in the court were, left to right, Misses Jo Anne Mossey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rene Desommers, of New Orleans; and Miss Jackie Luc, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Luc of Henderson Point.

Mrs. Tudury, who has worked with the chapter since it was organized in 1939 by the late Charles G. Moreau, served as county chairman for three years. Couple Returning from Honeymoon in Wreck

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Diez of Alton, Illinois, were treated at Kings Daughters hospital Saturday, October 7, for minor injuries received in an accident at 7:45 that morning.

The couple was returning from their honeymoon, spent in New Orleans, to Alton, when the left rear tire of their automobile blew out at the intersection of the curve on U. S. Highways 90 and 11; Mr. Diez drove the car off the pavement to avoid hitting another car head on. The Pontiac, in which they were riding, turned over once. Joe Witmann, highway patrolman investigated the cause of the accident.

Mrs. Diez received bruises, but both were dismissed from the hospital, where they were taken by Fahey's ambulance, that morning.

After the car was repaired they continued on their journey.

35th Negro Priest In U. S. Ordained

Reverend Joseph A. Francis, S. V. D., of Lafayette, Louisiana, was the thirty-fifth Negro priest to be ordained in the United States.

On the morning of October 7, the Feast of the Holy Rosary, Father Francis was made a priest by the imposition of the hands of the Most Reverend Richard O. Gerow, S. T. D., Bishop of Natchez, who has ordained more Negro priests than any other prelate in the country.

His Excellency was assisted in the ceremonies, which took place in the chapel of St. Augustine's Seminary, by the Reverend John Kemper, S. V. D., and the Reverend Erwin Bauer, S. V. D. The Very Reverend William Bauer, S. V. D., Provincial of the Society of the Divine Word in the South, was archbishop. The Reverend Christian Baker, S. V. D., was in charge of the ceremonies, while the Reverend Hubert Posjena, S. V. D., directed the choir of seminarians.

READS FIRST MASS

The new priest read his first Mass on the day following in the seminary chapel; this was preceded by a procession in which his parents, many relatives and friends took part. His first Solemn Mass is scheduled for October 22 in his home parish, St. Paul's, in Lafayette.

Father Francis is the most recent in the ever-growing number of native-born American Negro priests, who are active throughout the United States and two foreign fields—Africa and the West Indies. Twenty-seven work beside their white conferees in the home apostolate, while eight share the toil of the Church's foreign work.

STUDIES IN S. V. D. SEMINARIES

Entering the minor seminary immediately after graduation from grammar school, the young priest made his entire course of studies for the priesthood in seminaries.

Two general meetings will be held by the Bay St. Louis League Friday, October 20, when Mrs. Errol Horner, national representative from Washington, D. C., will present. The first meeting will be held at 3:45 p. m. in the Bay High auditorium; and the second will be at 8:00 p. m. at the same place. Following the evening meeting, the League invites all members and their friends to meet Mrs. Horner at the residence of Mrs. Leo Seal on North Beach.

The League hopes that every woman in the County will take advantage of these meetings to hear the report on League activities for the last six months; to discuss local and national problems with Mrs. Horner; and to contribute to the general discussion which will ensue.

Men in the County are also invited to attend the evening meeting. The League has also extended an invitation to each and every organization in the city, and to the Commission Council and the Board of Supervisors.

Mrs. Diez received bruises, but both were dismissed from the hospital, where they were taken by Fahey's ambulance, that morning.

Mrs. C. C. McDonald, chairman of World Citizenship Committee for the Mississippi Congress of Parent-Teachers Association meeting Tuesday, October 10. As one of a group of 125 representatives of the National P.T.A., Mrs. McDonald attended some sessions of the United Nations in New York last week.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

At the first meeting, Mrs. McDonald said, the group was given orientation talks on the meaning of international relations, and the part the individual plays as a world citizen today. The importance of individual, impartial, unprejudiced judgement, and the role of each person and agency was emphasized. The functions of newspapers, for instance, must include examination of governmental function and its soundness with an eye to national welfare as well as to headlines.

Mrs. McDonald told about visits to the United Nations Mission to the United Nations at No. 2 Park Avenue, which serves as the nation's first embassy and is headed by Warren Austin, Chief of the U. S. delegation. There she heard speeches by several notables, including Mr. Austin.

SEES DELEGATES TO U. N.

At Flushing Meadow and Lake Success the group had an opportunity to see the representatives of every delegation as they walked up to vote on filling vacancies on Security Council. Here Mrs. McDonald witnessed a deadlock vote on Lebanon and Turkey and the election of Brazil and the Netherlands. This was the fifth plenary session of the United Nations Assembly and the delegates witnessed the erecting of the flag pole for the sixtieth member, Indonesia, which had been voted in the day before their visit.

At Lake Success the Security Council was meeting in closed session.

REMARKABLE EXPERIENCE

It was a most remarkable experience, said Mrs. McDonald, "to make the whole area of International Relations come alive. We

Howard W. Le Tissier To Lead C of C In '51

Howard Le Tissier, owner of the Reed Hotel, was elected to succeed H. H. Shattuck as president of the Chamber of Commerce at a meeting held Tuesday, October 10, at the Courthouse.

Arthur J. Chapman, owner of the local Western Auto Associate Store, succeeds Robert L. Hamilton as vice-president, and H. E. Engelhorn was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Members of the board of directors chosen for the year were Dan M. Russell Jr., Dr. B. L. Ramsey, H. H. Shattuck, Robert L. Hamilton, Arthur J. Chapman Jr., T. T. Robin, H. W. Le Tissier, A. H. Gregory and Cyril J. Glover. Merchants located on the Beach reported a 25 per cent increase in their volume of business since the beach road has been repaired.

"From all indications," the new president stated, "the coming year will prove even more prosperous for Hancock County." In continuing, Mr. Le Tissier said, "an open forum is to be conducted here October 13 by John D. Smith, Highway Commissioner, regarding the location of the new bridge over the Bay of St. Louis; and I believe we will be surprised to see how soon the actual work will begin."

Laurent Dickinson, chairman of the American Legion building committee, reported on the work that had been accomplished by the Legion on the concession, sand beach and public pier to be erected at the head of Washington street.

"We would like to remind you," Mr. Dickinson said, "that the funds received for this purpose are to be placed in a separate bank account, to be used solely for the purpose of improving the pier and beach at that location."

Calls A Meeting Of Pecan Handlers

A thorough explanation of the Pecan Marketing Agreement will be given at a meeting called for October 18 at 10:00 a. m. at the courthouse in Gulfport, Howard Simmons, County Agent, announced.

Leon Scott in charge of Federal Seed Inspection Service; D. K. Young with Production Marketing Association; Chesley Hines, Extension Horticulturist; and W. E. Jones, Marketing Specialist, Fruits and Vegetables, plan to attend the meeting in order to explain the operation of this agreement. Another meeting will be held in Hattiesburg at the courthouse, October 17.

Misunderstanding Among Handlers

There seems to be considerable misunderstanding among the pecan handlers regarding the pecan marketing agreement, stated Simmons.

The pecan agreement and order regulating the handling of pecans grown in Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi and South Carolina, was signed by the Secretary of Agriculture September 20, 1949. The initial regulations which went into effect October 20 and continued until superseded by other regulations issued by the Secretary, state that no person shall handle, except as provided in Section 99.4(e) any unshelled pecans (1) unless such pecans are U. S. Commercial, or better, as such grade is defined in the United States Standard for unshelled pecans, and (2) unless they have a count per pound of less than 91 nuts, and the 10 smallest nuts in a 10-unit sample weigh at least 1.5 ounces.

Pecan Marketing Agreement

There seems to be considerable misunderstanding among the pecan handlers regarding the pecan marketing agreement, stated Howard Simmons, County Agent. First, the above agreement and restrictions applies only to the pecans grown in the States listed above and which are later shipped or moved to points outside of this 5-State area. Second, unshelled pecans for shelling or processing outside the designated area may be handled regardless of grade and size regulation in effect, and without first being inspected and certified if before such pecans are handled, the handler has insured to the satisfaction of the Pecan Administrative Committee that he will comply with the requirements of the marketing agreement and order. This places full responsibility upon the handler to satisfy the committee. However, the committee in turn has made only such requirements as will provide reasonable and adequate safeguards that such Writs of Injunction were issued by the clerk of the Chancery Court A. C. Mitchell, and said writs further directed the sheriff to take into his possession and under his control any such gambling devices, including slot machines, as he may have found on said premises and to hold the same until the further orders of the court.

At this time we are informed that all of said writs have been served with the exception of one.

The hearing in these causes to make the injunction permanent will be at the October Term of the Chancery Court.

W. Gex Elected Alumni Leader

Walter J. Gex Jr., class of 1921, was elected president of the St. Stanislaus Alumni Association, at a meeting held Sunday morning, October 8. Others chosen to lead the association for the ensuing year were Edmund Brignac, class of 1948, first vice-president; Pat Wilson, 1946, second vice-president; William Gordon, 1937, third vice-president; and Michael M. Irwin, 1916, Peter P. Banville, 1926, and Martin Koch, 1946, as members of the executive committee.

The assembled Alumni were welcomed by Brother Alexis, S. C. president of St. Stanislaus; in his talk, Brother outlined plans for the Centenary celebration of the school in 1954. He dreamed of having a music hall, a new infirmary, a combination dormitory and classroom building, containing at least six classrooms, and a gymnasium which would also contain a swimming pool.

Linden Braud, 1904, suggested that the executive committee, with Brothers Alexis and Edmund, be allowed to select the date and place of the Alumni's spring meeting, and due notice be sent to each member.

Brother Alexis announced that the present bank balance of the Brother Peter Memorial Scholarship fund is $3416.68. It was proposed, by several of the members, that a committee be appointed to find new ways and means to enhance the fund in as short a time as possible. The goal this year is to obtain sufficient funds to allow for at least one scholarship. The new officers will name this committee in the near future.

It was voted to invite the wives and sweethearts of the Alumni to the spring meeting; each member will bear the expenses of his guest. The executive committee will schedule a date and place to have the present senior class inducted into the Alumni association.

Brother Lambert, who has held various positions at Saint Stanislaus from 1896 to 1926, received many of the old timers who visited for the day. Among them were Henry Wagespack, 1900, Linden Braud, 1904, Cyril Clavertie, 1916, Mike Irwin, 1916, Berch Wilbert, 1923, Omer Kuebel, 1922, and many others.

GIVE US THE AMERICAN WAY

It is seldom that a newspaper will come out in its editorial columns and ask its readers to endorse one of the paper's advertisers. There is a first time for everything. We ask our readers to support the American Medical Association's campaign to conquer a most dreaded disease—SOCIALIZED MEDICINE.

To fight for the rights of the American people and the freedom of American medicine, in a battle to death against the socialistic trends of our government, the Association has organized a mass educational campaign, which in many ways is similar to the "Voice of America" radio programs designated to bring the truth to the people behind the "iron curtain." The Association, like the State Department, knows that if the truth is known, there can be but one outcome—victory for the American way.

We are against socialized medicine or compulsory health insurance as some would prefer to call it, because it is contrary to the very precepts upon which this nation was founded. It would destroy free enterprise, initiative, and the opportunities for research.

We are not against health insurance. Remember the voluntary way is the American way.

The United States is the healthiest country in the world. American medicine is making dramatic progress. It should not be shackled with politics or the ideals of socialism.

The tragic failure of socialized medicine in England should be a lesson and a warning to all of us. The cost is prohibitive and the service, to say the least, is third rate. The doctors there are so busy filling out forms that they hardly have time to see the sick, and certainly no time at all for research.

The worst part about our trend to socialism, if allowed to continue, is that it won't stop with medicine. It will go on and on until our system of free enterprise has been completely destroyed and we are reduced to mere vassals of a socialistic or communistic government. England, once the greatest nation on the globe, is slowly dying from the cancer of socialism, being kept half alive by the few scraps tossed her way by a free America.

The American way is when a member of the family is sick to call the family doctor not the politician. Let's keep it that way.

To Observe Fire Prevention Week

The Pass Christian schools and business establishments, in conjunction with "Fire Prevention Week" being observed throughout the Nation this week have planned programs to observe fire safety to protect lives and property.

In Mr. Schooley's, of the Aetna Life Insurance Company, address to the Rotary Club Tuesday he stated that "The week designated as Fire Prevention Week is always that in which October 9, the anniversary of the great Chicago Fire in 1917 falls." Quoting statistics Mr. Schooley said that "on an average of nearly 11,000 persons lose their lives each year in fire, many times that number suffer incapacitating or painful burns and injuries, and that more than 400,000 fires were reported last year. The victims of home fires are largely women and children."

During 1948, according to the National Board of Fire Underwriters, the total property damage loss in the United States amounted to $715,074,000, which is a per capita loss of approximately $5, the highest fire loss in the history of our country. The first drop in annual fire losses since 1942 came last year when the estimated property destroyed by fire was 6 1/4 per cent less than that of the 1948 record. Fire ranks third among causes of accidental death, being exceeded only by motor vehicle accidents and falls.

These figures and statistics supply the answer to the question as to why we should have a fire prevention week. The perils of fire are present 365 days in the year and the only purpose of designating a particular week out of the 52 weeks in the year as fire prevention week is to signalize and emphasize the importance of this problem to every man, woman and child in the country. It affords an opportunity right at the beginning of the season of the year when fire losses usually turn upward to give new impetus to a program which is continuous and which should not be forgotten even for a moment.

A study of all fires of known origin over a ten year period shows matches and smoking produce 29.26% of the losses; misuse of electricity 10.38%; fire originating off premises 8%; lightning, 6.94%; defective chimneys and flues, 6.88%; stoves, furnaces, boilers and pipes 6.31%; petroleum and its products 6.17%; Sparks on roofs 5.74%; open lights, 5.41 per cent; hot ashes and coals and open fires 4.03%; and miscellaneous causes 10.88%.

No nation, regardless of how prosperous, can afford to squander its human and economic resources as we are doing each year in permitting fires to destroy so many lives and such great property values.

Each citizen of Pass Christian is requested and urged to take a few minutes out of their busy lives during this fire prevention week, to take active steps to eliminate the hazards which may exist in our own homes and places of work, schools and recreation centers.

Commission Clarifies Methods of Taking Fish

Jackson, Miss.—Clarification of methods of taking non-game gross fish was achieved by the passage of a new regulation by the State Game and Fish Commission in executive session here today.

Previous regulations passed by the Commission governing the taking of non-game gross fish specified methods that could be used and stated that "all other methods were illegal." Considerable controversy had arisen throughout the state in recent weeks by the conviction of a number of fishermen who were using a method which was called "telephone" or "ringing 'em up." This method consisted of a mag-neto from an obsolete type of telephone equipment and the attaching of a number of wires and placing them in the water. When cranked a sufficient amount of electricity was generated to stun catfish that came in contact with the wires. When stunned they were easily lifted from the water.

The Commission had obtained a large number of convictions, but felt that the illegal method used had become so widespread that it was necessary to clarify the regulation. The following order was passed:

"BE IT ORDERED that it shall be illegal to take catfish or any other gross fish such as carp, buffalo, paddle fish, or any fish of any description classed as non-game, by the use of telephone generators, electric generators, magnetos, or any electrical device of any description. Penalties are prescribed by the Game and Fish Commission laws."

Director R. M. Freeman in discussing the use of this illegal method said, "To many it will appear that this is a new and highly acceptable method of taking fish. To the wardens, the Commission and conservationists who are interested in the proper use of fish and wildlife, the method will appear like wholesale destruction of catfish, for which the streams of Mississippi are famous. While the old regulation was sufficiently strong, and the law on which the regulation was passed gives the Commission sufficient authority to control the taking of non-game gross fish, nevertheless, the Commission felt that it would better serve the conservation of our fish by passing the regulation given above which specifically forbids the use of electrical devices for the taking of non-game gross fish. Therefore it was unanimously passed by the Commission."

Director Freeman further stated, "The Game and Fish Commission has no authority to determine methods of taking game fish. They are determined by legislative act and may be found in Section 5900, Code of 1942."

The New York Tribune was the first American newspaper to pass under corporate control.

John Peter Zenger, early New York editor, was jailed in 1734 for his criticisms of the royal governor.

The first newspaper in New York City was named the New York City Gazette. It was started in 1725.

Mr. McCulloch presented the movie entitled "Power of the South," which is an industry film, in color, dealing with the four southern states: Georgia, Alabama, Florida and Mississippi. The film shows that the southland is day by day becoming a land of modern industry. Who Runs America?

the Congress?

the President?

OR YOU AND THE MAN NEXT DOOR?

RUNNING AMERICA is the joint job of 150,000,000 people. It's the biggest job in the world today —keeping it running for liberty and for freedom. And the whole world's watching to see whether Americans can do it!

IN MUCH OF THE WORLD today, the people have resigned from running their own countries. Others have been quick to step in—first with promises of "security"—and then with whips and guns—to run things their way. The evidence is on every front page in the world, every day.

FREEDOM COMES UNDER ATTACK. The reality of war has made every American think hard about the things he's willing to work and fight for—and freedom leads the list.

But that freedom has been attacked here recently—just as it has been attacked in other parts of the world. One of the most serious threats to individual freedom has been the threat of Government-dominated Compulsory Health Insurance, falsely presented as a new guarantee of health "security" for everybody.

THE PEOPLE WEIGH THE FACTS. In the American manner, the people studied the case for Socialized Medicine—and the case against it.

They found that Government domination of the people's medical affairs under Compulsory Health Insurance means lower standards of medical care, higher payroll taxes, loss of incentive, damage to research, penalties for the provident, rewards for the improvident.

They found that no country on earth can surpass America's leadership in medical care and progress. They found that able doctors, teachers, nurses and scientists—working in laboratories where Science, not Politics, is master—are blazing dramatic new trails to health for Americans—and for the world.

THE "GRASS ROOTS" SIGNALS CONGRESS. In every community in the Nation, people stood up to be counted on this important issue. Thousands of local women's clubs, civic groups, farm, business, religious, taxpayer, medical, educational and patriotic organizations spoke out—giving the great United States Congress its unmistakable Grass Roots signal from home!

And ever watchful, ever sensitive to an alert people, The Congress saw that signal, and heard the people speak out, loud and plain. That's democracy in action. That's the American way!

Today among the 10,000 great organizations on militant public record against "Compulsory Health Insurance" are:

General Federation of Women's Clubs
American Farm Bureau Federation
National Grange
Veterans of Foreign Wars
National Conference of Catholic Charities
American Protestant Hospital Association

American Legion
National Association of Small Business Men
United States Chamber of Commerce
National Association of Retail Grocers
National Retail Dry Goods Association
American Bar Association

• Doctors of this Nation are grateful that the people refused to be wooed by the fantastic promises of this un-American excursion into State Socialism. • Doctors of America are dedicated to serve their fellow citizens at home and their comrades in uniform, wherever service to this Nation may take them. • And the thing they stand ready to fight for—to sacrifice for—to die for—is not the alien way of life of Socialism, but the proudest security of a free and self-reliant people!

THE VOLUNTARY WAY IS THE AMERICAN WAY!

• Throughout the Nation, free men and women, working and planning together, are finding the American answer to every question of medical service, care and cost. Hundreds of Voluntary Health Insurance Plans are in healthy competition—sponsored by doctors, insurance companies, hospital, fraternal organizations—by industry, agriculture and labor. • Today in America—70 million people are protected by Voluntary Health Insurance! • Throughout the Nation, families are insuring themselves against the major costs of illness—at reasonable, budget-basis prices. Voluntary Health Insurance takes the economic shock out of illness. Protect your family now. • For information, ask your doctor—or your insurance man.

An American's greatest heritage is the right to learn the facts—and to speak his mind. Maintained with honor and used with sincerity—that right will guarantee forever that

You and Your Neighbor Run America!

What's Wrong with FREEDOM?

Our business is selling merchandise—the best we can buy—at the most economical price to you. It's a good business, and we like it.

But being in business in America is more than skillful buying and selling.

It's the exercise of a fundamental right—freedom to venture, freedom to plan, freedom to succeed by serving best.

All freedoms stand or fall together. That's why we take our stand today, with the doctors of America, for the Voluntary System. At home and abroad, it's worth defending!

PECAN HANDLERS

unshelled pecans will be handled in accordance with provisions of the agreement and order.

These safeguards consist of (1) a written agreement between the sheller or processor outside the 5-State area and the Pecan Administrative Committee setting forth the conditions under which unshelled pecans may be shipped out of the area for shelling or processing and (2) an application form and authorization for each individual shipment.

During the period November first through the following February, an inspection certificate is good if issued within 30 days just prior to shipment. During the remaining months of the fiscal period, an inspection certificate is only good for 20 days just prior to shipment.

After a lot of unshelled pecans have been inspected, and if they comply with the Secretary's order, numbered metal self-locking seals of the Pecan Administrative Committee will be clamped on the sewing twine and bag fabric of sacks to indicate that fact. Cartons containing consumer size packages of unshelled pecans which comply with the Secretary's order will be stamped with an official stamp of the Pecan Administrative Committee to indicate that fact. Any sacks or cartons of unshelled pecans found outside the area which do not show these official identifying seals or stamps, automatically fall under suspicion as inferior pecans out of the area in violation of the agreement and order.

If, for any reason it is necessary to resack pecans which have been inspected and stamped cartons of pecans, an inspector must be present to witness resacking or repacking in order to maintain identity of the lot.

The responsibility of having shipments properly inspected and certified is upon the producer. If the buyer acquires pecans which have not been inspected, and moves them outside the 5-State area, he is jointly liable with the producer or grower and subject to federal action.

ROCKS RUN RAMPANT SUNDAY

Bouncing back from their humbling by the Bogalusa Lumberjacks, the St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws ran rampant Sunday over the Samuel J. Peters eleven from New Orleans.

Scoring in every period, both through the air and on the ground, the Rock machine crunched out a 51-0 win over the Wildcats. Receiving the ball on the kickoff, the Rocks never relinquished and moved right down the field in a series of plays ending with a scamper of 17 yards by fullback Jerry Rooney for the score. Kicking off to the Wildcats and taking the ball away on a fumble, quarterback Jimmy Holmes dropped back and shot a forty yard pass to halfback Bobby Falgout for the second score. After that, the race was on.

Rooney set up another score with a 30 yard dash that enabled Jimmy Holmes to sneak over for a score. Rooney also scored two more TD's on runs of 17 and 30 yards to bring his total for the afternoon to three touchdowns and three conversions after the TD's. The halftime score stood 22-0.

In the second half, the Rocks slowed down for the third quarter and scored only one TD. Gilbert Schmidt broke off right tackle and scampered 30 yards for the score. Later Roger Heitzmann dashed up the left side for 24 yards and his seventh score. Jimmy Holmes wound up the scoring for the Rocks by tossing a 30 yard pass to Jerry Lytle for the final tally and the fifty-first point.

The Rock line held the visitors not only scoreless for the entire game but first-downless for three of the four quarters. The Peters' eleven managed to get into the Rock territory only once by way of two 15 yard penalties. Jerry Rooney and Jimmy Holmes were the offensive stars, while defensively, Pat McCurnan, Mickey Haas, Bob Weigand and Jimmy Gilmore were the sparks. No credit can be taken from the whole Rock-A-Chaw squad for their excellent performance. The blocking and tackling were of the best. All 34 members of the squad got into the game, with freshmen Bobby Falgout and Monroe Kimball, and sophomores John Caruso, Farrell Gaudet, Winkie Wittman, Jerry Lytle, Don Mahis and Ralph Hille performing like seasoned veterans.

The big surprise of the game came in the fourth period when "Big Luke" Caruso was moved to fullback and began to batter his way toward the enemy goal. His line plunging, ending with a pass reception, led directly to the last touchdown. More may be seen of "Big Luke" in the fullback slot.

Thursday night the Rocks journeyed to Columbia, Mississippi, to play the Columbia eleven.

At half time, the Peters and Stanislaus bands entertained the alumni and visitors.

The Rock band, led by Henry Capdepon, drum major, and flanked by two files of 16 girls each, played a fanfare under the north goal post. They stepped off to the tune of "Auld Lang Syne" down the field to the center where two files of girls aligned themselves by the 40 yard stripes. They played several selections and welcomed the grads.

At the conclusion of the Alma Mater, 114 students of St. Joseph Academy did the "Duster Dance."

The halftime show was under the direction of Brothers Canisius, Elbert and Romuald. The girls were trained by Miss Sybil Koeniger and Sister Julia Marie, their moderator.

Miss Koeniger, athletic director at the convent, was presented with a chrysanthemum corsage in appreciation for her assistance.

BAY-WAVELAND YACHT CLUB WINS ALL HONORS IN REGATTA

The Bay-Waveland Yacht Club won in each of the six classes in the Southern Yacht Club's Gulf Coast Invitation Regatta Sunday afternoon in New Orleans. In this regatta, the Southern Yacht Club skippers turn their boats over to the skippers from the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

The B-WYC had one of its skippers disqualified; Monk Smith of the local club crossed the finish line better than four minutes ahead of Louis Koerner of the same club, in the Fish Class race. Smith was disqualified by the race committee as the result of a protest by Commodore Rip Terrell of the Pass Christian Yacht club, moving Koerner to first.

Terrell, who crossed the finish line only one second behind Koerner, was second. Harry Whitman, also from the PCYC, was third; and Marie Taylor of the Gulfport Y. C. was fourth.

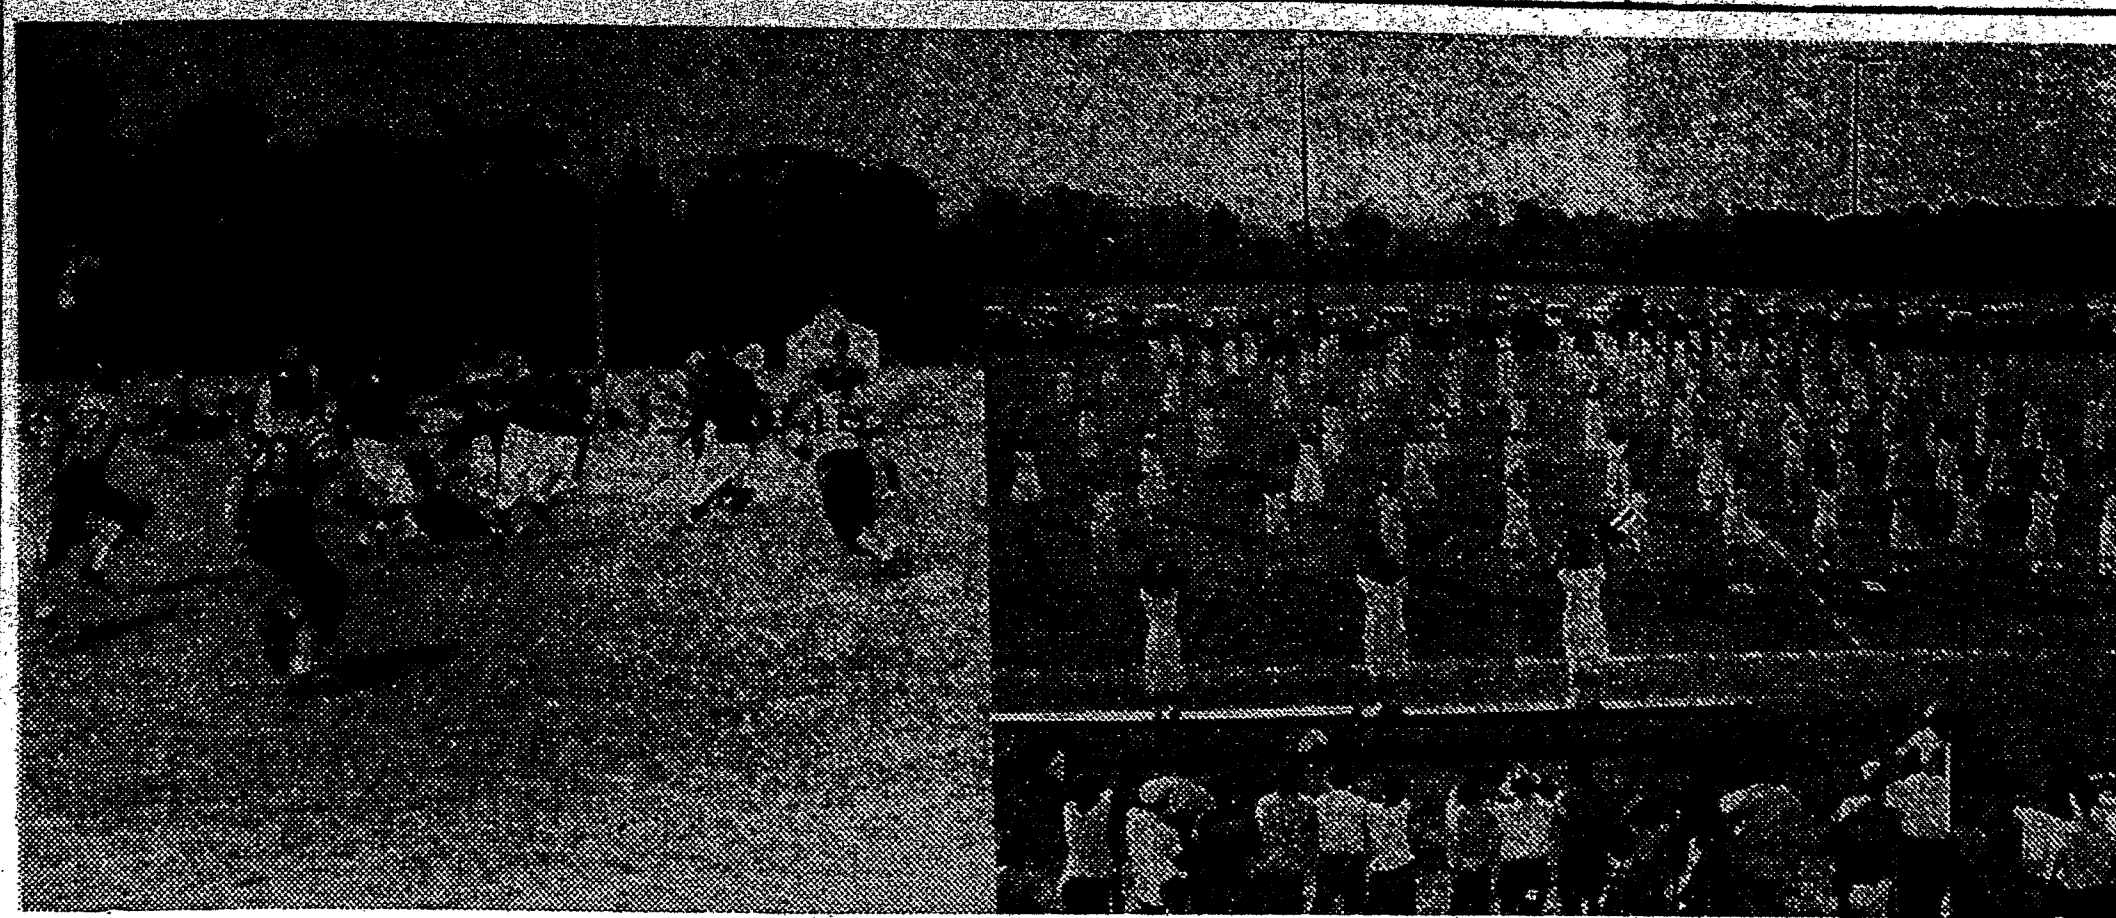

J. E. Erwin of the Bay-Waveland Y. C., sailed the Pimpernell to an easy victory in the Cutter class event. After leading for two rounds, Erwin finished one minute and 40 seconds ahead of Chula, sailed by Andy Alfonso of G. Y. C., to take the race on both elapsed and corrected time.

Trouble, sailed by Sidney Ellis of Pass Christian Y. C., was second on corrected time; Chula was third, followed by Norseman with Skipper Sam Mills of Gulfport. Brenda, sailed by John Curren of PCYC, and Red Wing, sailed by Ed Carrere of Bay-Waveland, followed.

Arthur Wynn, another winning skipper for Bay-Waveland, sailed the Pagan to an easy victory in the Star class; he finished almost four minutes ahead of Ark, sailed by Vincent Alfonso of Gulfport. Rosalie Ambler of PCYC, sailing Urchin, finished third, and Ann Liversedge of the same club was fourth, in Yankee.

Top honors in the Luders L-16 race were taken by George Hammet of the local club; he crossed the finish line two minutes ahead of Glendover, sailed by W. Seymour of the Biloxi Y. C. Glendover was third as the boats rounded the mark at the end of the first round, but Skipper Hammet worked her into a second place early in the second round.

Bill Richardson, sailing Lorelei was third; followed by Sybarite, sailed by Elton Howell of Gulfport. T. Schmidt of PCYC sailing Dolphin; Hot Toddy, sailed by Joe Alfonso of Gulfport, and Al Brady of PCYC in Tyee, followed.

talked of source materials, visual aids, international education projects and techniques to use in carrying the story back to our communities. The top people in each field and many from other countries or just back from observation tours were there willing and ready to give information and help. It also gave you a feeling that we had come a long way in this struggle for peace and that the recent happenings in Korea, when for the first time nations stood together for collective security, fighting under the U. N. flag, in a country so far away, to protect a people from aggression, marked the most significant event since the discovery of atomic energy.

In her address to the P.-T. A., Mrs. McDonald concluded by stressing the four points made by Dean Acheson September 20: 1.) provision for calling an emergency session of the General Assembly if the Security Council fails to act. 2.) Establishment of a security patrol. 3.) The earmarking of troops to be especially trained and equipped for U. N. duty, and 4.) technical assistance.

MISS THELMA NAMIAS BECOMES BRIDE OF FREDRICK G. COLLINS

The wedding of Miss Thelma Elizabeth Namias of this city and Fredrick Gano Collins of Mobile, Alabama, was solemnized at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church Saturday morning, October 7, at a Nuptial Mass at ten o'clock. Right Reverend Monsignor A. J. Gmelch was celebrant of the Mass.

The couple said their marriage vows before an altar lighted by tapers in tall candle sticks and seven branched candelabra extending across the altar.

The bride entered to the strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin played by Professor John Hammersbach. During the ceremony Miss Frances Vella who has been heard in operas in New Orleans, sang Ave Maria, Panis Angelicus and Lord, I Am Not Worthy.

The bride given in marriage by her uncle, Bernard B. Blaize, was a sweet picture of youth in a bridal dress of ivory satin. The tight bodice of the dress ended in a point, and the full skirt fell in a graceful train. The bodice was finished with a nylon net yoke and the round neck was trimmed in flower and leaf lace design. The yoke was attached to the bodice with a broader band of the same design. The long sleeves and back of bodice were button trimmed.

Her long veil of Belgian illusion was held in place by a halo of the same lace, and she carried a round bouquet of stephanotis and lilies of the valley with a white orchid, in the center.

She had as her maid of honor, Miss Kay Ford of this city, and as bridesmaids her cousin, Mrs. G. P. Green of Fort Worth, Texas, and Mrs. Harvey Stanley of Fort Lauderdale, Fla. They wore dresses in a lime peel shade of green velvet and carried bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums arranged with spikes of wheat in a cascade effect. Petals of the same flowers, with sprays of wheat, formed the head pieces. The dresses were fashioned with a deep round collar forming a cape over the shoulder and full floor length skirts.

Mr. Collins had as his best man Thomas Murphy of Mobile, and as groomsmen Edward Adams and Thomas Galloway both of Mobile. Ushers were Jack Adams of Mobile and Alvin Cahall of New Orleans.

A reception was held on the lawn of the Blaize home on Carroll avenue. Mrs. Blaize, Mrs. F. E. Lister and Mrs. Collins were receiving with the bridal party. Mrs. Blaize wore a brown crepe dress; Mrs. Lister's dress was of blue lace and Mrs. Collins was attired in a grey velvet dress. Each wore a corsage of baby orchids.

The four tiered wedding cake, on a lace covered table, was surrounded by white gladioli. Gladioli were used for the lawn and reception room decorations.

Miss Kay Ford caught the bride's bouquet.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. F. E. Lister and the late Walter Namias; she was reared by her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Blaize of this city. She is a graduate of St. Joseph Academy and attended the University of Alabama.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Collins of Mobile and is a graduate of the University of Alabama Law school. He maintains a law office in Mobile.

For traveling the bride wore a wool gabardine suit in a plum shade and a small black velvet hat; her accessories were black, and she wore white kid gloves and a white orchid corsage.

Upon their return from a wedding trip through Tennessee and Alabama, the couple will make their home in Mobile.

AN Apple

WE DON'T HAVE A THING AGAINST DOCTORS, BUT...

Wouldn't it be wonderful if the old adage came true, and by just selling apples we could keep all sickness away?

It would be such a simple solution to the problem of medical care that even the doctors would welcome it—even though it meant they'd have to look around for something else to do.

But seriously, we merchants today have something in common with the medical profession. So do you. We all are faced by a socialistic threat to our freedom.

Our business is selling merchandise. It's a good business. It's good because...

AMERICAN FREEDOM HAS LET US BUILD AND COMPETE AND SERVE YOU BETTER

We all know that in times of emergency, temporary controls sometimes become necessary—and are loyally accepted. But State Socialism is not for us!

We don't want Government operation of our business. We are equally opposed to Government control of medicine or other fields of private endeavor.

That is why today we salute the doctors of America, who have proved that Americans will fight just as hard to preserve freedom at home as they do to protect it from forces of aggression overseas.

Meanwhile fair officials were getting ready for additional thousands of school children from all over the state who are expected to pack the midway on Friday, which is annually set aside as School Day.

The Royal American Shows, world's largest midway extravaganza presents one of the greatest combinations of outdoor entertainment in today's show world and the Barnes-Carruthers Theatrical Enterprises presents their "State Fair Revue of 1950" nightly in front of the grandstand.

Headline attraction of the Royal American Shows is "Wee Bonnie Baker," the "Oh, Johnny," girl and her Broadway company of 47 top-line singers, dancers, comedians, musicians, and beautiful chorus girls.

The show is produced and directed by the famed Leon Miller who produced some of the most lavish musical comedy hits on Broadway.

Miss Baker won acclaim with Orrin Tucker's orchestra with her inimitable style and presentation of the "Oh Johnny," song. The petit songstress skyrocketed to fame over night. She has appeared in many movies, Broadway musical shows, on the networks and has recorded and sold hundreds of thousands of records.

Other attractions along the Royal American midway are the huge circus side show of freaks and oddities gathered from all parts of the world; the monkey circus with 50 performing chimpanzees, monkeys, ponies and dogs; the Hollywood midwest revue, featuring the smallest living adult performers and starring little Paul Dale, star of the Eagle-Lion picture, "It's a Small World"; life size figures in wax of the "Last Supper" which is being exhibited for the first time in this country; a sensational Aquacade featuring beautiful dancing girls under water; the Motordoms; the 1950 edition of Harlem in Havana and many other headline entertainment numbers.

One of the finest musical productions yet conceived and created for outdoor presentation, the "State Fair Revue of 1950" is unfurled nightly in front of the grandstand.

From the very first, the show claims complete attention, opening in rousing fashion. "Rendezvous at Four" the first sequence, depicts a merry cafe crowd about to embark on an afternoon of carefree activity. The latter part of this number introduces the 3 Wiles, versatile and vivacious dancers with tricks up every sleeve.

"Rhythm of the Jungle," which follows, changes the mood entirely. Set in an exotic jungle land with a giant tom-tom as the center of interest, it utilizes the talents of the entire ensemble of girls, wearing colorful flamboyant native costumes. As they dance and whirl about the tom-tom, beating out a tattoo with drumsticks, the effect is unforgettable.

Med Loan Student Begins Practice

Dr. Fred P. Sage, native of Drew, has returned to practice in his home community. Dr. Sage, after three years' service in the Air Corps during World War II, entered University of Tennessee Medical School in July, 1946, and completed internship at Shreveport Charity Hospital, Shreveport, Louisiana.

Dr. Sage was one of the first Mississippi students to be approved for a State medical education loan.

Returning to Drew, Dr. Sage will take over the practice of his brother-in-law, Dr. John G. Egger, who has re-entered active military service in the National Guard as of September 11, 1950.

Commenting, Dr. D. S. Pankratz, Chairman of the Mississippi State Medical Education Board, said today: "By his return to his home community at this time Dr. Sage is filling a place and maintaining a service to the people of that area which has previously been offered by Dr. Egger. Not only will Dr. Sage maintain Dr. Egger's office but he will maintain and continue to offer medical care to the people of Drew and surrounding areas."

The editor of an early Boston newspaper organized public meetings and demonstrations in favor of forming a United States with a Constitution. It is believed that his activities did much to cause Massachusetts to ratify the Constitution.

An early patriot editor carried legal government notices in his newspaper free of charge, refusing to accept payment until finally George Washington thanked him for his generosity to the fledgling government and insisted that he accept pay.

Wyoming had a newspaper in 1869 before it became a territory.

Next is "Dutch Treat" when the audience is transported to Old Holland to share their joyous mood of a merry tulip festival. As the lovely Dutch maidens parade with illuminated bouquets of varicolored tulips, strobolite beams play upon the scene and transform the stage into a veritable sea of color.

The finale, "Lights of Mystery" demonstrates a new high in the art of theatrical lighting. Girls in sparkling spangled costumes begin a series of lively maneuvers about a number of luminous cylinders arranged on the stage and then the entire show assembles about one huge revolving platform from which bright colored streamers of silk are drawn.

Throughout the show the spectators are offered wonderful orchestral music and splendid vocalizing by the Stuart Singers, the show's stellar vocal group.

COUNTY AGENT'S NOTES CLOVER PLANTING TIME IS HERE

By HOWARD SIMMONS

Clover planting time is here. It's also a good time to study and improve any old clover areas.

Four things to be sure of with new clover plantings are to use enough minerals to grow good clover; prepare a good seedbed; inoculate the seed and cutback the ground.

Clover and legumes which can be planted now, and recommended rate per acre for each, are white Dutch clover, 8 pounds; Ladino clover, 3 pounds; crimson clover, 25 pounds; wild winter peas, 50 pounds and vetch, 25 pounds.

Clovers can be sown on top of the ground after oats or ryegrass are growing. Use of the cultipacker on all land prepared for clover planting pays in good, quick germination.

Many farmers use a few hundred pounds of mixed fertilizer, or 50 pounds of nitrogen, to get clovers off in new pastures. The nitrogen will help start the grass along with the clovers.

On old clover areas, see whether the minerals have given out, and whether the sod, such as Bermuda or carpet, has become too heavy for clover to get through.

If the minerals are low and the clover has gone down, apply phosphate and potash, or basic slag and potash on top of the clover sod. It is best to run a disk lightly over the sod to tie the minerals into the soil. A mixed fertilizer, 0-14-10, can be used at a rate of 500 to 600 pounds per acre.

Bloat often becomes a problem on farms where clovers grow heavy and grass is absent or thin. As insurance against losing livestock from bloat, sow ryegrass at the rate of 25 pounds per acre on clover sod where no grass is growing, and plant an acre of either ryegrass, fescue or oats alone for grazing during the period that clovers bloat so badly. Just take off the clovers and go on grass or oats alone.

The bloating period is not very long; it is worst in April and May, and there are times when bloat isn't too bad during these two months.

Many farmers have wild winter peas or vetch and oats to graze when clovers become troublesome. When planting oats alone for grazing, drill four bushels to the acre and apply 60 pounds of nitrogen at the time of planting. It will pay to drill two bushels one way and then drill two bushels the other way.

For Italian ryegrass alone, sow 35 pounds of seed and apply 60 pounds of nitrogen.

With fescue alone, drill or sow 10 pounds of seed and apply 60 pounds of nitrogen. Then go back and apply 40 pounds more of nitrogen in late November and 40 to 60 pounds March 1.

SWEET POTATO HARVEST
Sweetpotatoes should be handled carefully and as little as possible from the time they are dug until they are packed for market.

Do not throw them into piles, loose in a wagon or in sacks. Carefully place them in crates as they are picked up.

With our death toll for the first 7 months standing at about 300, Col. Birdsong asks that all Service men consider the fact that they are of no assistance to their country as Traffic Fatalities.

Benjamin Franklin, printer and editor, has been termed by one historian as "the one man of vision" in the colonial resistance of oppression.

Military Leaders Promote Safety

Alarmed at the number of Service men being killed and injured in traffic accidents, Col. T. B. Birdsong, Commissioner of Public Safety and Vice-Chairman of the Governor's Highway Safety Committee, issued a plea for more cooperation and asked them not to expect immunity to traffic laws, simply because they are Service men. Col. Birdsong stated that all Military Authorities in our State are cooperating with our Department 100 per cent in the promotion of various traffic safety programs. Still hardly a week goes by without a Service man being killed or seriously injured.

Col. Birdsong stated that he was fully aware of the sacrifices men in uniform are making or would be called upon to make and the frequent necessity of their returning to their Bases at a given time; however, he pointed out that in the first 6 months of 1949 that 136 Service men were involved in accidents as Drivers and 9 of these were fatal. A number of others were killed and injured as passengers and pedestrians. No statistics are available, but loss of life in this category is known to be heavy. Even though our record is some better this year, for which we give much credit to the work of Military Authorities due to their Safety Programs, we must continue to reduce these accidents further.

"Military personnel are often attempting to stretch their liberty or leave as long as possible by speeding," he continued, "and this expose themselves and others to its attendant dangers. When apprehended, they almost invariably plead ignorance of local laws and expect leniency on this ground and because they are members of the Armed Forces."

Col. Birdsong, an overseas veteran himself, stated emphatically that any member of the Patrol ready to render Service men all assistance possible and practical, but dangerous driving simply could not be condoned any more than it can when a private citizen is involved.

With our death toll for the first 7 months standing at about 300, Col. Birdsong asks that all Service men consider the fact that they are of no assistance to their country as Traffic Fatalities.

Yes, there are now four times as many telephones serving rural Mississippi, as there were at the end of World War II.

This remarkable growth didn't just happen—it was the result of 4 1/2 years of continuous effort, building central office facilities, erecting poles and stringing wire...and the expenditure of more than $4,000,000.

Right now the expansion of Mississippi's farm telephone network is moving along at the fastest clip in history. Today 124 workers are busy full time extending the service to more and more rural areas.

A total of 27 rural projects are in various stages of construction, 55 more have been engineered for early construction, and engineering is underway on 20 more.

Filling all of Mississippi's needs for rural telephone service is a tremendous job, and we are pushing our rural expansion program forward at the rate of $200,000 a month to make the service available to more and more rural homes and more valuable to all Mississippians.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Here's An "Expert" Example!

When our Main Street parking problem cropped up again, we announced a strict one-hour parking policy, and swore in extra deputies to enforce it.

We also sent over to the State Capitol for a traffic expert, to give us pointers. He turned out to be real helpful—spent a whole afternoon with us talking about zoning and such. And when he left the building he found a ticket on his car for overtime parking!

Could have gotten sore, I guess—or asked us to "fix" the ticket. But instead, he insisted on going over to the Sheriff's Office and paying his fine.

From where I sit, it's good to know people, like that young fellow, who refuse to be treated any different than anyone else. City people and farmers—those of us who prefer cider and those who'd rather have a cool glass of temperate beer—we're all entitled to the same privileges. That is, so long as what we do doesn't conflict with the law of the land.

...and we had to buck a lot of competition

But it was healthy competition. We had to work hard and plan carefully. But it was worth a promise of reward.

We like to think that the friends we've made and the success we've had are typical examples of the opportunity America offers the man with an idea and a determination to build and manage his own business.

We wouldn't trade places with a small businessman of any other Nation for anything.

We think we can do a better job running our own business than the Government could. We think the doctors and nurses and scientists can do a better job managing the medical care of the Nation than the Government could.

We believe that American freedom is worth working and for at home and abroad.

You don't do this...

So...why do this?

The man lighting his cigarette on a $10 bill is a cheap skate beside the couple leaving their campfire smoldering. Behind them, they leave thousands of acres of ruined forests, roasted carcasses of wild game, wrecked watersheds, land exposed to erosion.

Thousands of acres? No, millions! Every year, we burn millions of acres of producing forests simply because we forget to extinguish campfires to the last spark, to make certain that cigarettes and matches are really out before we discard them.

The best fire fighter is the man who prevents fires before they start. Remember that, when you are in the woods.

Jackson Committee Shows High Cost Of Alcoholism

Dr. Joseph B. Price, Chairman of the Survey Committee of the Jackson Committee for Education on Alcoholism, has announced the findings of the group in Mississippi after intensive investigation and compilation of statistics which has extended over the past year.

The records for Jackson are based on questionnaires submitted to police, hospitals, schools, industry, and social services. The results shown by the police survey are particularly significant according to Dr. Price in showing the high community costs of alcoholism. In 1949, the Jackson police made a total of 6,559 arrests. More than half of these arrests, or 3,595, were a result of a violation of the liquor law. About 177 thousand dollars were assessed by the Jackson police in fines. Alcohol violators were assessed by the Jackson police in fines. Alcohol violators were assessed 99 thousand dollars of this amount. The figures show that 61 percent of these violations were by white Jacksonians, with the remaining 38 per cent by colored. Broken down by age groups, far the greatest number of alcoholics lie in the 22-40 range, 84 per cent of the violations were by laboring classes—skilled, semi-skilled, and unskilled.

The Jackson Committee on Alcoholism is unbiased in its stand on the problem of alcohol. It is neither "wet" nor "dry", seeking only to compile the facts as to social and economic effects of excessive drinking. It is affiliated with the National Committee, and includes representative groups in the community. The Jackson group is a cross section of doctors, club women, ministers, business men, judges, social workers, alcoholics anonymous educators, and public health officials.

The group carries out its overall program in four ways: (1) Education of the community on the problems of alcoholism as an illness and as a public health problem. In this connection, Dr. Price, and his all-student staff at Millsaps College toured the entire state during the past year, carrying out the work of education through lecture and film series. (2) Establishment of an Information Center (3) Establishment of a clinic for the study of alcoholism and the diagnosis and treatment of alcoholism. (4) The problem of better hospital facilities for the treatment of victims of alcoholism.

The survey indicates that the costs of alcoholism are not confined to the community's increased expense for police protection. In industry the costs are equally high. In only one firm questioned, 5,382 man hours were lost owing to problem drinking. The monetary loss to the firm from those absences was $2490. In addition, the reduced personal efficiency of the problem drinker costs the firm $2300, and replacement trained for the problem

The historian Rhodes declared that no single man in his time influenced so many people as Horace Greeley, editor of the New York Tribune.

The first American newspaper, Publick Accurances, was started with the intent of "curing, or at least charming of that spirit of lying which prevails..." in Massachusetts colony. It was suppressed after the first issue.

What Do You Know About Cheese?

By MISS MADGE ALLRED

Cheese and crackers, toasted cheese, pimento and cheese, cheeseburgers.... we all like them, but what do we know about the cheese we eat?

Are you one of the majority of Americans who prefer Cheddar, or what we call "American" cheese? You probably are, for the 7 pounds of cheese each person eats each year in the United States, American Cheddar accounts for 4.8 pounds.

This type cheese was named for the English village of Cheddar, where it was first produced about 100 years ago. It is made from cow's milk and in sizes ranging from 8 to 100 pounds. It may be yellowish-white color or a deep yellow.

You can tell what the cheese is made of by the label on it. It is generally made of whole milk; but if it is made of partly skimmed milk, it must carry a qualifying adjective on the label such as "part-skim" or "skim".

We all notice a difference in the way some of the American or Cheddar cheeses taste. This is caused by the degree of ripeness. The ripening or aging process changes the lumpy, curdy texture of freshly made cheese to one that is firm but pliable and mellow. The flavor gets "tangier" or sharper as the aging progresses.

Aging Cheddar cheese to the point of "sharpness" used to take 8 to 12 months. Today, thanks to research, the same process requires from 3 to 4 months.

Cream cheese rates second on the American housewife's list. It is made of cream, thickened by souring and by the addition of rennet to aid curdling. There are

Bontemps - Collier
Wedding Celebrated

Miss Lelia Marie Collier became the bride of Irwin Leon Bontemps Saturday October 7, at 2:00 p. m. at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church. Rt. Rev. Msgr. A. J. Gmelch officiated.

The couple plighted their troth before an altar decorated in white gladiolas in vases and tall floor baskets. The wedding marches were played by Professor John Hammersbach, and during the ceremony Mrs. W. E. Witter sang Ave Maria, Panis Angelicus and Lord, I am not Worthy.

The bride entered with her brother, James Collier, of Mobile who gave her in marriage. She wore a copen bleu velvet dress made with a tight fitting bodice and round neck line, the skirt fell gracefully to the ankles. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of American Beauty gladiolas. Over her head piece, which was of the same material as the dress, she wore a shoulder length veil which fell over her face.

Her only attendant was Mrs. Victorine Ladner, whose dress, of American Beauty velvet, was fashioned exactly as the bride's. Her head piece was of the same material as the dress, and she wore a short veil over her face. The bride wore a pale yellow gladiolas. Mr. Bontemps had as his best man Emmett Demoran of this city.

A small informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where her mother and the bridegroom's mother were receiving. The rooms were decorated with white Chrysanthemums, and the four tiered wedding cake rested in an arrangement of white gladiolas and fern.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Bontemps left for a week's trip, and upon their return they will make their home with the bridegroom's mother on Booker street. For traveling the bride wore a navy blue coat suit and a small pink hat. Her gloves and purse were of a matching shade.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Collier of this city and is a graduate of Bay High. She has held a position with the wholesale firm of W. A. McDonald and Sons for several years.

Mr. Bontemps is the son of Mrs. Joseph Bontemps and the late Mr. Bontemps and is a graduate of St. Stanislaus. He is associated with the Demoran Radio Service.
